

BC Cup DH Round 4 – Kicking Horse

For the 4th round of the BC Cup DH series racers headed to Kicking Horse Mountain Resort in Golden for the Western Open, a riders favorite for the long, steep and technical course and with the unpredictable weather in the alpine it always makes for an exciting race weekend.

Heading up into the alpine for Saturdays morning practice.

With the course being a hard one on the body and there being about a three minute ride down to the top of the course riders needed to make every lap count in order to not tire themselves out before race day. It's not uncommon on longer tracks like these for some riders to be faster in practice than on race day from over riding in the days before.

Logan dropping into the top of the course. There's no easing into this course, it's full on straight from the top starting with high speed steep rock faces.

This course can be extremely hard on bikes. Here's Devon giving his Norco some love before going up for practice.

Coach Cory decided he would register and race this one with the rest of the C4 team.

Cory enjoying the hot seat after a tough race run in the high summer heat. Cory would go on to finish 3rd on the day.

Logan Van Eesteren about to drop on for his race run that would place him 4th in Junior Expert Men.

Two C4 riders on the podium for Junior Expert Men with Jacob Stefiuk in 2nd and Logan Van Eesteren in 4th place.

Jonathan Schlender taking 2nd place in U17 Sport Men.

Conlan Reis took 3rd place the Junior Sport Men.

Cory Leclerc took 3rd place in the 40-49 Master Men category.

Overall a very successful weekend for everyone at C4 Rider Training with many riders on podiums and everyone in one piece ready for the next round of the BC Cup DH series at Silver Star Bike Park.
